

I support Sinclair Broadcasting's right to free speech in deciding to air the documentary Stolen Honor.

Our democracy thrives on a diversity of opinions, and Sinclair's airing of this documentary featuring the words of actual Vietnam veterans is a legitimate part of that diverse dialogue that is so essential to making fully informed decisions in the coming weeks.

Please do not bow to the pressures of those advocating censorship of ideas they don't like.

Thank you,
Don Bryan