

I find the actions of the management of this Sinclair TV chain in planning to air a partisan political piece a couple of weeks prior to the general election to be deeply worrisome. This does not at all seem to be an attempt to inform voters but to galvanize support against one candidate and for his opponent. This is not what the public airwaves are supposed to be about. Sinclair needs to be investigated if it goes through with airing the of "Stolen Honor" and its license renewals need to be scrutinized.
