

It seems quite apparent that Sinclair/SBG's decision to require its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor," days before the election constitutes a partisan advertisement for one candidate. While Sinclair calls the documentary "news," it is clearly slanted heavily toward one political candidate, and is not even unbiased by any objective standard.

The timing of this decision is clearly calculated to impact the election, and as such requires your immediate intervention.

Please protect the public interest by requiring SBG either to (a) wait to air the advertisement after the election, or (b) provide the Kerry campaign with equal time in an equally appealing time slot (also without commercial breaks and before election day) to present material to balance the "Stolen Honor" political advertisement.

Thank you.
Enten Pfaltzgraff Eller