

I donate to and listen to k-love and would not like to lose this station because of Low Power FM. K-Love has great programming for my family and I. It would be a loss to our community because of the great music, positive message and great outreach. The air waves are full of garbage and K-Love is one place my family and I enjoy music together without worrying about trashy topics and language.