

I love to listen to K-LOVE. I listen to it about 95% of the time and so does my friends and family. Lives have been changed through this radio station. This station brings hope and life to our fallen world and people need to have something positive like K-LOVE for their children to listen to.