

It confirms all our worst fears about media conglomerates and media monopolies when we see corporate media blatantly misuse OUR airwaves to promote their policies and political objectives.

I always thought that the FCC was responsible for keeping media fair and honest. I deeply hope that I am not wrong, and that you will do the right thing--stop Big Media from abusing the public trust. It is the American thing to do.