Dear Jim:

On behalf of the Madison City Commission I wish to extend thanks to you and your staff at KJAM for all the public service you provide our community. Your news Director attends every City Commission meeting. You offer members of the City Commission and/or City Department Supervisors an opportunity on a weekly basis to be interviewed to provide governmental activity information for the general public. KJAM also initiates programs that stimulate marketing activity resulting in retail sales which provides sales tax revenue for city general fund expense.

In addition to the public service provided by KJAM, you and members of your staff are committed to serving the Madison community. Several of you serve on various boards and commissions. The City Commission truly appreciates your commitment to service.

Sincerely,

Royce D. Hueners, Mayor
