

K-Love has a family-friendly programming that imparts positive values and encouraging messages to its listeners. It is an inspiring and edifying tool for our family as it helps us become effective parents in raising our two young kids. Impressionable as our boys are, we are confident that with K-Love we are exposing them to the right medium. We truly believe that we become better persons by surrounding ourselves with positive influences and definitely K-Love is one.