

K-LOVE radio serves me in two ways. First, when I am at my home in California, it allows me to listen to great Christian music any time I want. Second, while I am in Spokane, WA, attending Whitworth College, K-LOVE allows me to listen online and still hear great Christian music.

If K-LOVE radio were to be displaced by some other programming it would be devastating to our local community. Many people listen to K-LOVE and find it to be a constant source of encouragement in their day-to-day lives. The world we live in is a busy, hectic place, and K-LOVE is a refuge from all of the chaos. K-LOVE is in the public interest because of its goal to provide family friendly music. It is unique, because anyone of any age can listen to the music that K-LOVE plays without hearing something bad or inappropriate. All of the songs are full of positive messages. K-LOVE is an innovative radio station that helps to bridge the gap between generations of listeners, by bringing the family together. Everything on K-LOVE is uplifting and inspiring. K-LOVE radio can only make a community better.
