

When did we become a nation of Puritans? Why has this ultra-conservitism wave which has been perpetuated unto the American public. We need to relax and take a collective breathe. The 1950's are said and done. We need to move forward as a nation rather than attempting to become something we cannot.