

Mr. Powell-

I can not express to you my disappointment in you and your actions today. You come out and make a public statement scolding ABC for their "Monday Night Football" content but do nothing to scrutinize other networks that are continuously showing the segment in question at all hours of the day. This kind of discrimination and close sightedness is unacceptable from the chairman of a regulatory commission of the United States government.