

I feel consumers and businesses of all sizes are better served by letting us choose the internet provider of our choices. Small, non conglomerate providers give excellent service which I appreciate. I do not want to lose this choice of provider.