

As a handicaped person the no call list help's me out a lot. I have trouble enough getting around the house without getting to the phone only to find out it is from somebody wanting donations or sell something or another that I have no interest in! Caller ID I have it. I still have to see who it is it might be my DR. Save No CALL!!!!!! It is very important. Most people do not want to be bothered by People they do not know!!