

Please do not weaken the "No Call" rule in Wisconsin. How are Bankers any different than any other business? What gives them the rights to solicit business over the phone or to hassle customers who have dropped their services? Maybe they should focus on customer service and not hassling those who dropped their services. Thank you for your time.