

I do not want to be exposed to telemarketing from a businesses or its affiliates simply because I have had contact with the business. If anything, the FCC needs to make the law more stringent. Put consumers, not big telemarketers first!