

The no-not-call list is a welcome and important service that should not be diminished by proposed challenges to it. The fact that nearly 80% of citizens have taken the time to participate is a demonstration of how important it is viewed; this high a level of participation in ANY program is rare. Telemarketing is a plague of society; please help us to dismantle this predatory marketing method by maintaining the integrity of the no-call-list in wisconsin.