

I don't want the no call list changed, if they want to contact me they are more than welcome to e-mail me or mail me something. If I am a past customer surely they would have this information. Then I can read their promo's when I want to, not when they want me to.