

The Consumer Bankers Association wants to start making telemarketing calls to Indiana No-Call list registrants. I urge you to deny their petition. The peace and quite we enjoy in Indiana should not be diminished by allowing the banks to call people on the no-call list.

We are on a no-call list for a reason, that is, we do not want to be called, by any seeking to do business with us!