

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net. The service is superior for one thing. BellSouth's request would badly affect my available choices of Internet Service for broadband. Please do not undermine this choice.