

Family time is precious commodity in our time. When there is a chance to be with and talk to my family I and my family do not wish to be disturbed by peddalers on the phone. If I wish to do bussiness with these peddalers I will call them. I pay to have the convenace of having a phone for my and my families use, not to be harrassed by the peddalers.