

Please do not change the Indiana no call list. We in the state finally enjoy a measure of privacy in our homes. We pay for these phone services and do not want to receive calls from businesses on the phone. I do not patronize or donate to any company or organization that uses my phone as a method of marketing.