

I do not want my privacy invaded by tele-marketers, and I oppose any weakening of Indiana's law. I feel tele-marketers invade my privacy with their unsolicited calls to my home and work place. The Indiana law has protected my privacy, and any exceptions to the current law would infringe on my privacy.