

I am strongly opposed to weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. I do not want to be contacted by phone by those I have business with. Any business I have with them should be conducted during business hours and at my instigation. Since the Indiana law came into effect, my quality of life has improved as I do not have to worry about constant calls from telemarketers. Thank you.