

Please do not weaken the Indiana "Do not call list" regulations. People should have more right to their privacy than any right of others to invade it uninvited.