

I am strongly opposed to BellSouth's proposed take-over of the ISP market forcing out the small players and allowing large telecommunication corporations domination of the market.