

I urge denial of this request because access to phone lines is critical for local internet servers such as Sonic.Net which is providing excellent service.