

I believe that the banks need to have respect for their customers and not be allowed to call for any other reason than a "specific" problem with their account or business transaction. I do not want them to weaken the Telephone Privacy Law - if anything I would like to see more of the calls marked "illegal" and stopped.

THANK YOU