

Just because I have a relationship with a company doesn't mean that I want them to be allowed to call me. The State of Indiana has a law regarding this that I approve of. A law that is more stringent than the Federal law regarding Telephone privacy. Federal Law should NOT trump State Law with regards to Telephone privacy.