

Deregulation of essential public services has never been good for the people and there is no reason whatsoever to assume that the deregulation of broadband internet service pricing will lead to anything except less competition and higher prices. THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE!!!