

Regarding the Indiana Telephone Privacy laws:

We support the law in its current status. We feel that we should have the choice to restrict incoming unsolicited phone calls. Banks, credit card companies, and others with whom we have a business relationship should not be exempt from these laws.