Mariana writes: Yeahh!!! Fine! I'm Mariana, from Brazil and it's the first time I visit this cool and awesome site. The Brazilian site of Nick is really boring comparing with this. Here, coming soon, in December 24, the Spongebob SquarePants-the movie. The American people have already seen. You are lucky, all the movies are exhibited first there. The U.S. is amazing!!! I love it and have already been there! I would like to live there. Hey, a question: who are the "Unfabulous", in my country it isn't on TV yet. Say for the people responsible for the Nickelodeon channel in Brazil: "put the "Unfabulous" in the air!" Ha-Ha-Ha! I like very much a Teenager Robot, Rugrats, Rugrats Grown Up, Sponge Bob, As Told by Ginger, Rocket Power, Hey! Arnold, Oh! Yeah!, Kennan and Kel, Sabrina, Drake and Josh, Danny Phantom and all the programs and cartoons. Here, in Brazil, there are the "Patrulha Nick" and the "Nicktonico", which are very funny. So, it's just these words and sorry if I don't make correctly sentences. P.S: My mom is an English teacher but she doesn't know the cool slangs, so can you zap me some of them, my e-mail is: [redacted] Please!!! I'm waiting for the answer.
Thanks and... Bye! See ya!

I just want to say how great of a job you guys have done with this site. I am a mother of a 2-year old and a 10-month old (both daughters). My oldest is in love with all the characters on Nick Jr. We subscribe to the magazine as well. When we visited the site earlier and was able to have Dora read my daughter a book, I thought I was going to cry when I saw how excited my daughter got. The cool printables add a special touch to our daily routines. I can print off neat ideas for us to do together, such as make our own Dora cake. You guys bring a smile to my daughters each and every day and are probably not told often how wonderful you are. I would like to say thank you and keep up the good work. Sincerely, Melissa

Your movie guide is so helpful. I wish you would include more movies on it. National Treasure(PG), Fat Albert(PG), and Racing Stripes(PG) are a few examples of current movies on which I would love some recommendations of age appropriateness. As a parent of four kids, I don't have time to preview all the movies before I let them go see them. I have relied heavily on your guide and have never yet been disappointed with your advice. Thanks, Jennifer i downloaded your pumpkin carving patterns of Dora and Blues Clues. I carved them onto my pumpkins yesterday and they turned out FABULOUS! I am very impressed, as is my 4 year old daughter who absolutely loves Dora and Blue. Is there an email address i can send digital pics of my finished work so you can see how well they turned out? I have never carved anything like this before.
