

It is my strongest desire that free enterprise be allowed to flourish and the Verizon petition that would ultimately result in fewer choices in Internet providers be denied. In America there MUST be room for small businesses as well as corporations.