

As the daughter of a handicapped mother, who is wheelchair bound, I don't not agree that the "Do Not Call" law should be weakened. I find these calls bothersome enough, but it is a struggle each and everytime my mother has to answer a phone call. When she expends such effort and energy only to hear a sales pitch on the other end, it is very frustrating. Please DO NOT change the law.

Sincerely,
Andrea Stumpf