

I oppose this new regulation because it will jeopardize small independent internet providers. Diversity should be encouraged and supported to prevent monopolies by just a few major businesses.