

Competition in this market is highly desired. SBC uses out-dated database information to arbitrarily confer or deny DSL service in our rural area. Manual loop tests are not common knowledge or offered when there is any possible doubt in service availability. This matter is still relevant as of 2-27-05.