

Dear FCC Commissioners,

Deregulating broadband would result in the demise of smaller, "mom and pop shop" ISPs like mine, Sonic Net, which provide essential support unavailable from the nationwide ISP services. It would also result in higher internet access fees to consumers with limited means, such as myself.