

To whom it may concern (hopefully, you);

My name is on the Indiana Do Not Call list for a reason - I don't want any calls. I have all the information I need to make informed decisions from the massive amount of service advertising that accompanies my monthly bills and other media advertising by the banking industry.

I strongly suspect there will be additional charges added later by the banks to cover the costs of newly hired telemarketers. I have no desire to participate in either paying for them or having to hang up on them.

Thank you,

C. Burt Caldwell
