

Dear FCC Commisioner,

I am requesting that the FCC continue to regulate boadband service. With increased consolidation of media ownership, local needs are sacrificed and service and support suffer. My current broadband provider is a local company which has provided exceptional service in the North San Francisco Bay area and proposed rule changes could jeopardize their ability to continue to provide their invaluable services. Thank-you, Sincerely, Kristoffer Jost