

I am truly concerned as a United Airlines flight attendant over the possible use of cell phones in flight. There is the issue of the convenience of a cell phone for terrorists. Also the concern in an event that the cabin was being prepared for an evacuation. Passengers' concerns would be on using the phone not listening to instructions to save their lives. There are too many safety issues to list!!!