In re Schools and Libraries Universal Service Support Mechanism

Comments on the Universal Service Administrative Company's Proposed Audit Plan

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of the State E-rate Coordinators Alliance (SECA), I am writing to inform you that Gary Rawson, Julie Tritt Schell, Win Himsworth, Greg Weisiger and the undersigned met today via telephone conference with Carol Pomponio, Jennifer Schneider and Mark Stephens of the Wireline Competition Bureau. The purpose of the conference was to discuss the Universal Service Administrative Company's proposed audit resolution plan and the public policy issues concerning the establishment of a fair and open process which enables audit findings to be resolved in an administratively expedient manner.

In accordance with the Commission's rules, SECA is filing this letter electronically through the Electronic Comment Filing System in the above-captioned docket and proceeding.

Respectfully,

/s/ Debra M. Kriete
