

granting the Level 3 request and affirming that reciprocal compensation, not access charges, apply to IP-PSTN traffic is the only way to maintain the consistent, cost-based compensation regime that has been in place for VoIP providers from the beginning