

I believe the sale of the satellite known as Rainbow1 located at 61 degrees to Echostar would violate the Taft-Hartley and Sherman Anti-trust laws.

I also believe this sale is not in the best interest of the consumers, would stifle competition in the satellite television industry, and stop the development of satellite HDTV delivery.