

Please reconsider the sale of the Voom Satellite and associated licenses to Echostar. I believe that this would limit competition in the DBS business and set the advance of HDTV back at least 18 months.

If the licenses are taken away from Voom please do not assign them to Echostar, leave them available for another provider that may be interested in competing with the two major players.

Thank you.