

I am a subscriber to Voom's satellite service. I would like to request that Voom LLC be allowed to continue operating their service using Rainbow 1 at 61.5 degrees. I think one of the goals of the FCC is to promote competition in the interest of the public. This would help to achieve that goal. They offer three times more HD content than any other cable or satellite service provider! It is the future of TV!