

I would like to see the FCC allow Voom service to continue at the 61.5 frequencies. It would allow me greater choice in service provider and prompt the other competitors to move forward in technology to meet the deadline of HD broadcasting.