

I would like to continue to receive my service from VOOB. Voom has provided me with excellent service and has the best HDTV service period. I believe that Voom Hd LLC wishes to continue providing HD service from the Rainbow-1 satellite at the 61.5 frequency. We as consumers should be able to choose from a variety of services. As you know, competition among HD providers always provides a strong product. Please make a good decision. Mike Miller