

I am opposed to the sale of Satellite Rainbow 1 at 61.5 degrees from cablevision (Voom) to Echostar (Dish Network) this is but another attempt to lessen competition of satellite programming by Echostar. Voom should be allowed to continue operation utilizing Rainbow 1, it is currently the only viable HDTV programming on satellite programming. Please deny Echostars request to purchase Rainbow 1. Thank you