

I would like to voice my opposition to the pending transfer of the Rainbow DBS satellite to Echostar.

I believe that the continued viability of a third provider is critical to ensuring the transition to HD digital television.

Blocking this transfer will ensure that consumers continue to have choices in DBS providers.

Thanks!