

I am a satisfied VOOM customer and wish to see this unique service continue. I am always pleased to see the FCC support competition and consumers, and this service not only provides competition for standard definition programming but the only real alternative for High Definition programming.