

I enjoy Voom Satellite service as my only source of High Definition tv. Now it seems that the satellite that Voom uses is being sold to Direct Tv, I do not think this should be allowed. It is not good for the public as we need these High Definition channels. carriers are taking way too long to give us HD. Please help keep Voom broadcasting